Sound solutions, solid results. EQUENS

Equens News is a publication of Equens SE. This newsletter will be published frequently. Equens is the first pan-European, full-service payment processor. As one of the largest payment processors in Europe, Equens leads the market for future-proof payment and card solutions. The European payments market calls for payment and card processors with a pan-European vision. We support the development of a single, uniform European payments market (SEPA). Consequently, we have dedicated ourselves to the standardisation and harmonisation of European and worldwide payments. We offer full reach within the eurozone and have a strategic partnership with the Federal Reserve Banks in the United States for the processing of intercontinental payments. Our strategy is geared towards further growth and economies of scale, with the aim of providing sustainable financial benefits to our clients – now and in the future.
